DESCRIPTION

Every day your body is exposed to harmful bacteria, viruses, and pathogens which can lead to a variety of illnesses. In addition to these attacks on your immune system, recent discoveries of superbugs that are resistant to modern medicine pose an even bigger threat to our health and well-being. For thousands of years, silver has been used to keep water and food safe as well as for its medicinal properties. Today, Genesis PURE™ brings you the newest, nano-particle silver technology on the market.*

Genesis PURE Silver contains SilverSol technology, proven to help boost the immune system to defend against a variety of bacteria, yeasts, and viruses. Genesis PURE Silver provides powerful immune support with 10ppm (parts per million) of silver. It is non-toxic and non-irritating so it can be taken orally or applied topically.*
